DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 5 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 5 and 6 recite the limitations “the two half-arms”, “said first axis”, “said second axis” and “said third axis”. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

It appears that claim 5 should be dependent upon claim 2.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1 and 5-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US Pat. No. 4,988,244 (Sheldon et al.).

Sheldon teaches a flatbed 30 with horizontal working surface on which a workpiece is to be positioned, a machining head 32 which is mobile in space above the working surface; supporting structure (see reference numbers 31, 40-44, for example) which is designed to support and displace the machining head 32 in space above the working surface of the flatbed 30; the supporting structure with a floating platform 31, with a longitudinal through opening for the spindle drive 34 of machining head 32, mounted above the working surface and a plurality of articulated supporting arms 40-44 designed to support the floating platform above the working surface on opposite sides of the floating platform; each articulated arm 40-44 being mobile in a vertical plane and being designed to connect the flatbed 30 with the floating platform 31.

Regarding claims 5 and 6, Sheldon teaches half arms and means for movement with the various rotation axes (see figure 7, for example).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 2-4 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Closest prior art is Sheldon as discussed above. Whereas Sheldon discloses half arms, and teaches the connection to the machine flatbed and floating platform, Sheldon does not disclose the half-arms hinged to one another via a first connection hinge that enables the two half-arms to rotate about a first pre-set axis of rotation, and are separately hinged one to the flatbed of the machine with a second connection hinge and the other to the body of the floating platform with a third connection hinge in such a way as to be able to rotate freely about a respective second axis of rotation and a respective third axis of rotation parallel to said first axis of rotation.

Therefore Sheldon does not anticipate the claimed invention.

Furthermore, there is no prior art, either alone or in combination with Sheldon that would render obvious the claimed invention, and no motivation found to modify the prior art to obtain the claimed invention of the combination of claim 1 and 2.

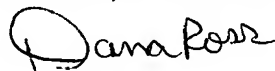

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
